Kay L. Meyer, Host

Family Shield is hosted by Kay L. Meyer, the founder and president of Family Shield Ministries. Meyer is a popular speaker and the author of numerous books for adults and children, Bible studies, devotions, and articles.

Family Shield is a live, weekly half-hour radio program that has been aired since 1996 on Christian radio stations, as well as Satellite and Internet websites. The program addresses family life, spiritual nurturing and growth, apologetics, and learning to witness. A production of Family Shield Ministries, the program guests are LCMS and Christian leaders with knowledge and expertise in a wide-range of topics.

Program topics are relevant to issues individuals and families face in today's world. They are designed to encourage, uplift, motivate, and equip listeners to serve in their home, the Church, and the community. The program shares the Gospel, equips listeners to grow in the Word, and encourages them to look to the Lord in all aspects of their lives.

Recent topics included: “Fun Family Devotions for the Home,” “Strengthening Your Marriage,” “Resolving Conflict Biblically,” “Strengthening Your Prayer Life,” “Dealing with Anger in the Home,” “Women Who Serve,” “Grandparents—Mentors of the Faith,” “A Father's Day Special,” “Witnessing—A Lifestyle,” “Sharing Christ with Hurting People,” “Responding in Love to Mormons,” and “Responding and Witnessing to Jehovah's Witnesses.”

What do listeners say about Family Shield? “Christine” is a single mom trying to raise three young children to know and love Jesus. She listens to the radio program each week and told us, “The program is a lifeline of hope and help. It always encourages me in my faith.”
